

STIF Intermediate Competency

Competencies and Knowledge assessed

- Taking a sexual history
- Offering screening for STIs including Chlamydia
- Male and female examination
- Diagnostic testing and interpretation
- Consultations with people under 18
- Consultations with patients who have limited English proficiency
- Consulting by phone/video
- Management of female genital discharge
- Management of male urethral discharge
- Management of genital warts and molluscum contagiosum
- Management of genital herpes infection
- Management of urinary tract infections
- Management of genital infestations
- Screening and prevention of sexually acquired hepatitis
- Risk reduction and advice on safer sex
- Effective partner notification
- HIV testing
- Managing women who present with unplanned pregnancy
- Assessment and management of need for PEPSE (Post-exposure HIV prophylaxis following potential sexual exposure).
- Safeguarding Children
- Female Genital Mutilation
- Domestic violence and abuse
- Assessment of someone who reports sexual assault
- Trans awareness

Within each of the competencies, a matrix of generic competencies is also assessed, examples include:

- ✓ Respect patient choice
- ✓ Respect patient confidentiality
- ✓ Consider ethnic and sexuality issues
- ✓ Be aware of patient dignity and need for a chaperone
- ✓ Awareness, evaluation and application of national and local guidelines and policies.